571 Description of mark

The mark consists of the letters "W" "V" "G" "H" with each letter separated by a single vertical line featured above four mosaic-type tiled squares wherein each square consists of twenty-five smaller squares that are five across by five tall. Within each square from left to right is the Greek letter "EPSILON", a division symbol or slash, the Greek letter "LAMBDA" and an exclamation point. The color royal blue appears in the letters "W" "V" "G" "H", in the vertical lines between the letters and in the background tiles of the four mosaic-type tiled squares; the color gold appears in the Greek letter "EPSILON", the division symbol or slash, the Greek letter "LAMBDA" and the exclamation point.
